A few teensters of North Torrance attended a Christmas party given by Louann Millett of Gardena. Those attending were George Morgan, Bob Morgan, Dianna, Dick, and Ariel Bybee and Bonnie Williams.

Snoopin' Around
Jerry Bloomfield and Sylvia Chase seem to be a pretty steady twosome lately. Also Dianna Standly and Mike Dralle.
Rosemary Francis seems interested in a certain boy from Portuguese Bend now attending El Segundo high school. My how these freshmen get around.
Remember, student body elections will be held the week after vacation is over. I hope to see many more of you running for office next term. Good luck to those of you running this term.

Happy New Year. I'll be back next year.

New Year's Party Slated

Members of Temple Merovah are sponsoring a New Year's Eve party at the South Bay Jewish Community Center, 112 1/2 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach. The event is to be a buffet dinner-dance, with all favors, entertainment, drinks and food included in the price. Reservations are now being taken by Ira Lichtig, chairman of Ben Kaufman, Temple president.

Swayne Johnson Holds Top Bluebird Position

Averages recently disclosed by Manager Jack French of the Torrance Bluebirds baseball club show that Swayne Johnson won the batting championship at a very high .436 clip.
The powerful Torrance police officer also led the team in total hits—62, runs—35, triples—5, home runs—5, and runs batted in—47. He also stole 11 bases to lead the team in that department.
Pitcher Jack Schlarbi, former "great" on SC's 1949 national champions, led the Torrance pitching staff with a low earned run average of 2.95 in 70 innings.

The curve ball expert also struck out 101 batters in twirling five wins.
Left Fielder Larry Roy, considered the finest prospect on the team, socked out a .424 average as runner-up to Johnson.
These sluggers were backed up by Third Baseman Don Taylor, .394; Tom Vandewoel, .362; Buck Kuhn, .353; Carl Schlarb, .344; Hank Canon, .336; Jim Taylor, .321; Clair Johnson, .311; and James Nady, .254.

Nady was considered the most inspirational man on the club, pulling many a game out of the fire, with his daring base running and timely hitting.
After a slow start, the 1955 Bluebirds came back for revenge by winning the championship of the Harbor League last summer.
Immediately following they came in second place in the consolation championship of the Southern California Munny Tournament in a field of 45 of this area's fastest ball clubs.

They also came in fifth in the L. A. Munny League championships in inter-league play-offs after league play.
